

Faculties: Call for course proposals VU Amsterdam Summer School 2026

The International Office has issued the Call for Course Proposals for the 13th edition of VU Amsterdam Summer School. The VU Amsterdam Summer School \(VU AMSS\) will take place between 4 July-1 August 2026, and it offers 2-week or 1-week courses fully on campus.

This serves as an excellent opportunity for the teaching staff of your faculty to:

- Profile your department and/or field of study internationally
- Generate additional income for your department
- Promote your programme to potential Master's students
- Design a course specifically in your own field of interest/research
- Work with a highly motivated and diverse group of students
- Initiate or strengthen collaborations with an international colleague and/or university
- Experiment with innovative teaching methods

The VU Amsterdam Summer School aims at:

- Profiling VU Amsterdam internationally as an institution
- Offering national and international students the opportunity to gain extra-curriculum knowledge in short, on-campus courses.
- Providing more opportunities for short-term mobility with partner universities.

The selection of courses is wide and focusing on 5 pillars that embody the values of the Vrije Universiteit. Namely, Sustainability & Innovation, Entrepreneurship in an international setting, Society & Governance, Health & Wellbeing, and Peacebuilding similar to the VU Profile themes.

We highly recommend you spread this news and encourage this teaching opportunity to your staff. All information (such as Framework, Financial model, Timeline, Form of course proposal) can be found in the attached document.

We suggest sharing this opportunity at your earliest convenience. The deadline for submission is 3 August 2025.
